

Rain Garden, Avondale Library

Looking for a Green Alternative to Stormwater Infrastructure?

Consider Green Stormwater Infrastructure (GSI)!

GSI practices attempt to mimic the natural water cycle by promoting infiltration at the source of stormwater run-off, slowing it down and recharging our natural ground water systems.

Permeable pavers

Bioswale

Stormwater Bumpout

Download the Guide to Green Stormwater Infrastructure to learn more at https://cwmp.org/homeowner_resources/

For more information about stormwater infrastructure contact your municipality at (municipality, phone, email)